

WOMAN ESCAPES OPERATION

By Timely Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Here is her own statement.

Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Cary, Maine.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

400,000 Settlers a Year

Immigration figures show that the population of Canada increased during 1913, by the addition of 400,000 new settlers from the United States and Europe. Most of these have come on farms in the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Lord William Percy, an English Nobleman, says: "The possibilities and opportunities offered by the Canadian West are so infinitely greater than those which exist in England, that it seems absurd to think that people should be impeded from coming to the country where they can most easily and certainly improve their position."

New districts are being opened up, which will make possible a great number of homesteads in districts especially adapted to mixed farming and grain raising.

MOUNTAIN OF FUJI

Description of Visit to Holy Mount of Japan.

"White Ghost of Fuji" Half Veiled in Mist an Interesting Sight on Japan Coast—Story of Ascent and Features of Trip.

Tokyo, Japan.—I and my Buddhist priest brother were settled in the train with our minds happily dwelling on the wisdom of nature which grows green foliage in summer, and our hearts leapt up when we first beheld Fuji mountain, or, more true to say, the white ghost of Fuji, as a certain poetess wrote. She is, indeed, a ghost half-veiled in dream-mist, always haunting us, now from the left or right, then from behind or before, during the run of 70 or 80 miles along the Pacific coast, where she mirrors her own beautiful face patiently and breathlessly all the day on the waves of jade. Why were our minds so much taken with Fuji mountain? Because we were this day, July 20, on the very way to climb the holy mountain of Japan.

As our serpent-like train crossed the desolate Banryu river and we entered the mountains and valleys of the Hakone range, our immediate thought was that we had happened by accident or dream within the domain of some Scottish mountain elf. We left the train at Gotemba to take a horse car toward Subashiri, one of the three places (it is generally called the Eastern Gate, and is the easiest route) where the holy climb may properly begin. We left the place on horseback, accompanied by a mountain-guide, or gorki, who carried on his back plenty of food and water and some blankets and clothing. We wore large bamboo mushroom hats, on which the words, "We two shadowy pilgrims of the holy highway" were written; and our shoulders bore, according to the fashion, wide straw rain-coats. We sang a song that was not of a city's rise or fall, but of a wind or flower, for we were glad that our ascent of Fuji mountain had started well. But where was the mountain? We were, indeed, hardly yet on the real Fuji; but the way in front and behind us was darkened by the heavy fog, except for a few yards. We were encouraged by the guide, who assured us of the fair sunlight on Fuji mountain, on whose top our footsteps would be printed on the morrow.

The mists did not disappear even when we reached Umagayeshi, or "The Place to Bid Your Horse Adieu." We did not part from our horses, but rode slowly up underneath the large forest of pine trees, dewy and dark, and we left the horses at Ichi no Miya, or "The First Temple," where we were told that we must now walk. On the steep pathway we felt at once that we were holy pilgrims with the song of prayer for "Rokkon Shoji" (the six vital parts, the eyes, nose, ears, tongue, body and heart). On the way we met with two pilgrims who were descending. One of them told us that the mountain-hut at the second station (the whole mountain is divided into ten stations, each with a stone hut, or Muro, where one can sleep) was not yet opened, as the season was a little early; and we were obliged to stop at the place called Ochujiki, or "Honourable Lunch Place," although evening had not yet fallen.

Here at Ochujiki the mists faded away under the blessing of spring, who was enthroned over the valley, although the season was in July, as I said before. Every sort of flower tried its best, while the nightingales and Japanese wrens brought down heaven's golden messages. We welcomed a hundred stars after our supper was over, and went to sleep with rich dreams. We rose early next morning, and again the mists troubled our ascent. Suddenly the great sunlight burst forth upon Mount Fuji right before us.

Last Scottish Stage Coach. Edinburgh.—The last stage coach, so far at least as Scotland is concerned, has just made its last run. The daily journey between Campbelltown and Tarbert will now be made by motor. For over 40 years the coach has carried the mails and passengers over this wild part of Argyleshire. The driver has many stories of adventure to tell, but only once did he fail to complete his double journey. On that occasion the coach was snowed up in returning.

Pastor to Teach Dancing. Jersey City, N. J.—Rev. George D. Hadley, rector of St. John's Episcopal church here, will open a school for dancing, with a view to eliminating "bugging" from the modern dances. "One can be up-to-date without being a 'bear,' or a 'bunny,' or a 'turkey,'" he said.

TALLEST BUILDING IN WORLD

Proposed Structure Will Be Erected to House Goods for South and Central American Trade.

New York.—Here is projected the tallest building in the world. It is still in embryo, but has progressed to the stage of blue print and architectural plan. The site has not yet been selected, but if this great conception should gain the essential financial support of the parties interested—American manufacturers who desire to establish their goods in South and Central American markets, and the big Southern-American concerns who believe in the great opportunity of fostering commercial relations between the two Americas—it will probably tower among the great structures arising around the new terminal of the New York Central.

It is to be more than a commercial structure, however, for it is to house the club rooms and exhibition halls of the Pan-American States association, which is now engaged in the important task of introducing the two interests to one another.

The design calls for a wonderful Spanish tower, pinnacled with red and gold, 900 feet in height. That is 151 feet higher than the Woolworth, the present record holder among the world's tall buildings.

Of course, the Eiffel Tower of Paris is higher yet, with its 204 meters, or approximately 1,000 feet. But the Eiffel tower is not either in form or purpose a building; it is rather an engineering demonstration along the lines of steel bridge construction, and beats about the same relation to a building proper that a fire escape or an extension ladder does to a staircase.

The step ladder order of Manhattan's—and that means the world's—half-dozen champion skyscrapers will therefore line up as follows:

Pan-American, 901 feet; Woolworth, 750 feet; Metropolitan Life, 700 feet; Singer, 612 feet; Bankers' Trust, 539 feet; Park Row, 382 feet.

The estimated cost of this latest building designed by Francis H. Kimball—who is the architect of the City Investing building, the Manhattan Life and a dozen other of the colossal structures that have helped to make downtown New York famous—rather stuns the imagination, as do other figures mentioned in association with this project.

The Pan-American building will call for some 21,000,000 cubic feet of building material of various kinds—steel, granite, terra cotta, concrete, tiling, bronze, iron, glass, etc.

Its estimated cost will be from $10,000,000 to $12,000,000.

The main structure is to be 33 stories high, above which the tower, with its efflorescence of spires and cupolas in the general style of the Spanish renaissance, will soar to the altitude of 901 feet.

Farmer Swallowed a Bee. Norwich, N. Y.—Suffering from the sting of a bee that flew down his throat, John Dye, a farmer near here, is in a dangerous condition. Dye owns thousands of bees and while collecting honey, one flew into his mouth and passed down his throat, stinging him in the stomach, according to attending physicians. When he dropped the honey swarms of bees attacked him.

Must Wait a Bit. The little group at the side of the road waited until Stealthy Stiggins returned from the nearby farmhouse. "Poor pickings," he muttered as he threw down a scrawny beef bone and a half loaf of bread. "Where's dat improvement in hand-outs youse promised?" demanded Muggsy Jones. Happy Higgins shook his head reproachfully. "You gotter wait," he said, "till de public adjusts itself to de new tariff."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

SCALP ITCHED AND BURNED

Greenwood, Ind.—"First my hair began to fall, then my scalp itched and burned when I became warm. I had pimples on my scalp; my hair was falling out gradually until I had scarcely any hair on my head. I couldn't keep the dandruff off at all. My hair was dry and lifeless and I lost rest at night from the terrible itching sensation. I would pull my hat off and scratch my head any place I happened to be.

"For several years I was bothered with pimples on my face. Some of them were hard red spots, some were full of matter, and many blackheads. I was always picking at them and caused them to be sore. They made my face look so badly I was ashamed to be seen.

"I tried massage creams for my face and all kinds of hair tonic and home-made remedies, but they only made things worse. Nothing did the work until I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I washed my face with the Cuticura Soap, then put plenty of Cuticura Ointment on. Three months' use of Cuticura Soap and Ointment has made my face as smooth and clean as can be." (Signed) C. M. Hamilton, Sept. 24, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston."—Adv.

Not His Wife. "Did I not see you talking to your wife last night?" "Nope; if it had been my wife I would have been listening, not talking."—Houston Post.

Family Reason. "Why do you drink so hard all the time?" "My wife won't speak to me when I'm drinking."—Town Topics.

STOP THAT BACKACHE

There's nothing more discouraging than a constant backache. You are lame when you awake. Pains pierce you when you bend or lift. It's hard to rest and next day it's the same old story.

Pain in the back is nature's warning of kidney ills. Neglect may pave the way to dropsy, gravel, or other serious kidney sickness.

Don't delay—begin using Doan's Kidney Pills—the remedy that has been curing backache and kidney trouble for over fifty years.

"Every Picture Tells a Story." Peter Loucks, Leelanau St., Frankfort, Mich., says: "I had awful backaches brought on by hard work. I couldn't control the kidney secretions and in the morning I was so lame and tired I could hardly get out of bed. My back ached terribly and it tried to stop. I had sharp twinges. I often got so dizzy that I almost toppled over. After the doctors had failed, I tried Doan's Kidney Pills and six boxes cured me."
